TO

The Honourable Thomas Moss, M.A.,

CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE COURT OF APPEAL OF ONTARIO,

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED,

AS A TRIBUTE TO A CANADIAN, WHOSE WORTH AND ABILITIES HAVE PLACED HIM
IN THE FOREMOST RANK OF HIS COUNTRYMEN, AND HAVE ENABLED HIM TO ADORN ALIKE THE HUMBLE WALK OF THE STUDENT AND THE EXALTED POSITION OF THE JUDGE,

BY HIS OBLIGED AND OBEDIENT SERVANT,

THE EDITOR.

BANK STREET ROAD, OTTAWA,

May, 1878.

P R E F A C E.

THE want of some such work as the Editor has sought to supply in the present volume, has, especially since Confederation, and the creation of a Supreme and Exchequer Court for the Dominion, been very much felt, not only by members of the legal profession, judicial officers, and others having connection with Law and the Courts, but also by a no inconsiderable portion of the general public. The Editor has endeavoured to meet the want, with what success it will be for the subscribers to the work to determine. A great mass of names and facts have been brought together in a small compass, the procuring of which has cost the Editor more time and trouble than many people will be inclined to give him credit for. The obtaining of information in the Maritime Provinces—where there seems to be an almost entire absence of Indexing or Registration to the Public Records—was most difficult and vexatious. Where, in these Provinces, the reader observes that the book is deficient in names and dates, the omission must be set down to the right cause—an utter impossibility of obtaining the desired information. Such as it is, the CANADIAN LEGAL DIRECTORY, as the first attempt at bringing the Bench and the Bar of the Dominion and of the several Provinces thereof under one cover, will, it is hoped, be found to be of service, and calculated to advance the best interests of the profession in Canada. The Editor finds himself under many lasting obligations to leading members of the Bar throughout the country, for assistance of various kinds, to one and all of whom he tenders his warmest thanks and acknowledgments.

DOMINION LAW SOCIETY.

(From the Canada Law Journal, January, 1877.)

The following is a report taken from the Halifax Citizen of a meeting of the Nova Scotia Bar Society, specially called to consider the report of the Committee appointed to promote the formation of a Dominion Bar Society. Their Honours, Judges Wilkins and Smith courteously adjourned the civil and criminal courts to permit a full attendance of Barristers.

The following report of the Committee was read by the Secretary :

“NOVA SCOTIA BARRISTERS’ SOCIETY,
HALIFAX, Oct. 20th, 1876.

“Report of the Committee to whom was referred the formation of a Dominion Barristers’ Society.

“Your Committee report that as soon as practicable after their appointment they prepared a circular on the subject of the proposed Society which they sent to the office-bearers of sister societies, and also to leading members of the Bar in the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and P. E. Island, there being no society yet organized in P. E. Island. The circular is printed in the Law Journal for October.

“That on the first of September one of the Committee, Mr. James, having occasion to visit the Upper Provinces, took the opportunity, with the assent of the Committee and of the Council of this Society, to spend some time in visiting the parties to whom the circulars had been sent and other prominent members of the Bar, and advocating personally the expediency of forming the contemplated Association. That he was received as the delegate of this Society with marked kindness and distinction, and the object of his mission, after undergoing the most thorough discussion in all its aspects, was in every instance approved, and the greatest encouragement expressed in favour of the project—not only by the Bar, but many members of the Bench of the Upper Provinces. Official answers have not yet been received from the Law Societies of the Provinces of Quebec and New Brunswick, but the approbation of the scheme so uniformly expressed is sufficient to induce your Committee to recommend that measures be continued to procure the formation and organization of the Society without delay.

“That it was the intention of your Committee to recommend the Society to invite delegates from the Law Societies and other Barristers to assemble in Halifax next vacation to organize the Society, but the officers and leading members of the Societies in Ontario and Quebec, while they would gladly accept our invitations, urged strong reasons in favour of organizing the Society at Ottawa during the ensuing session of the Legislature. The reasons urged appear to your Committee sufficiently cogent to induce them to recommend that course; and if our Society shall consent, the Committee suggest that a general meeting of the new Society be held in Halifax, next July or August; that the meeting be made as numerous a meeting as possible of the Bar of the Dominion, and that provision be made for the reading of a series of able papers on legal subjects by leading members of the Bench and Bar of the Dominion. Your Committee believe that such a meeting would be attended with invaluable results to the Bar, and public of the Province and the Dominion.

“ The Committee recommend that the meeting at Ottawa be called on the invitation of the Bar at Ottawa, the Law Society of Ontario, or the Law Society of the District of Montreal, to be followed by our invitation to be given at Ottawa for the meeting here in next vacation.

“ The Law Society of Ontario has given the project the unanimous and hearty approval of their Benchers in Convocation, and favourable answers are daily expected from the other Societies.

“ In conclusion the Committee recommend that the thanks of the Council be extended to the office-bearers of the Law Societies of Ontario, Montreal and Quebec, and to the members of the Judiciary and Bar of the Upper Provinces for the distinction and kindness with which they received the delegate of this Society on his late visit, and the warm interest manifested by them in the undertaking ; and also that a special meeting of the Society be held to consider the subject.

“ All of which is respectfully reported.

“ The following resolutions were then, after an animated discussion on each in turn, passed unanimously, with the exception of a very mild dissent from one of the meeting to the third resolution :

“ Moved by Shannon, Q.C., seconded by Mr. Eaton :—

“ Resolved, That the report be received and adopted, and that the committee be requested to continue their efforts to promote the formation of the Society.

“ Moved by James, Q.C., seconded by McCoy, Q.C. :—

“ Resolved, That the thanks of this Society be given to the Honourable J. H. Cameron, Q.C., Treasurer, and the other officers of the Law Society of Ontario ; William H. Kerr, Q.C., Bâtonnier, and the other officers of the Law Society of Montreal ; J. Dunbar, Esq. Q.C., Bâtonnier, and the other officers of the Law Society of Quebec, for the distinction and kindness with which they received the delegate of this Society on his late visit, and for the interest manifested by them in the proposed undertaking.

“ Moved by J. S. D. Thompson, seconded by Mr. Coombes :—

“ Resolved, That this meeting authorize the Committee, if they consider it advisable, to call a meeting in Halifax, in July or August next, for the purpose of organizing the proposed Society, or for the purpose of holding the first general meeting in case it shall have been previously organized at Ottawa.

“ Moved by Johnston, Q.C., seconded by Haliburton, Q.C. :—

“ Resolved, That the members of the Society look forward with much interest to the formation of a Dominion Law Society, believing that it will tend to elevate the tone and status, as well as to strengthen the hands of the profession throughout the Dominion, while it will promote fraternal intercourse with our Brethren in the other Provinces.

“Moved by Mr. Motton, seconded by Mr. Power.

“Resolved, That the thanks of the Bar Society be tendered to the Committee for their efforts in promoting the formation of the proposed Society, and especially to Alexander James, Q.C., Esq., for the able, efficient and satisfactory manner in which he discharged his duty on the recent delegation to the Upper Provinces.

“The meeting was also addressed by the President, McDonald, Q.C., and the Vice-President, Ritchie, Q.C., and by Messrs J. G. Foster, L. G. Power, and other gentlemen.

“The project was discussed in its various bearings and the spirit of the meeting was cordially in its favour.”

The Bar of Nova Scotia have taken this matter up with energy, and deserve great credit for the proper spirit which they have evinced in setting forward the movement.

CONSOLIDATION OF THE LAWS.

PRACTICE COURT AND CHAMBERS.

One of the Common Law Judges holds a court during each term, called the "Practice Court," for hearing matters relating to awards, bail, etc., and determining other questions of practice. Common Law Chambers are held each day by the Clerk of the Queen's Bench, who sits in place of one of the judges of the Courts, except in certain cases. Chancery Chambers are held by the Referee in Chambers, for such business relating to suits in Chancery as may be transacted by a single Judge out of Court.

Their duties are to determine claims to lands in the Province of Ontario, for which no patent has been issued from the Crown, in favour of the proper claimants, whether as heirs, devisees, or assignees.

Clerk to Commissioners.—William Benjamin Heward.

* This Court has the same powers and jurisdiction as the Court of Queen's Bench. Writs of summons and capias issue alternately from each Court.

COURTS FOR THE TRIAL OF CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS.

The nature of these Courts is sufficiently indicated in their title. The Judges of the Court of Appeal and of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity meet annually in Michaelmas Term, and severally select, by a majority of votes, a Judge of their respective Courts to be placed on the rota for the trial of election petitions. In the case of death or illness of a Judge so chosen, the Court of which he is a member meet and elect another Judge. At trials referring to the Dominion Parliament, two Judges preside, and appeals lie to the Supreme Court at Ottawa. At those relating to the Legislature of Ontario, a single Judge presides, and the appeal is to the Court of Appeal of that Province.

COUNTY COURTS.

(Constituted and established by 8 Vic. Cap. 13.)

The jurisdiction of the County Courts of Ontario is similar to that of the Superior Courts of Common Law, but is limited in amount, and does not include cases involving the title to lands (with the exception of actions of ejectment in specified cases), validity of wills or actions for libel, crim. con., or seduction. The senior Judge of the County presides in these courts. A great variety of judicial duties, auxiliary, concurrent, special, peculiar and appellate, are made incident to the office of the judges by numerous statutes, Dominion and Provincial. An appeal lies in certain cases to the Court of Appeal.

Jurisdiction in Insolvency.

Under the laws relating to Insolvency, the County Judge within his Jurisdiction, deals with adjudications of Insolvency, and the collection and distribution of the estate of insolvent traders. He determines all disputes respecting the estate, the ranking of creditors, and tries, in a summary way, contestations of claims, irrespective of amount: deals with frauds, fraudulent preferences, &c., &c. An appeal lies in certain cases to the Court of Appeal.

There is a Surrogate Court in each County, presided over by the senior judge. It possesses an exclusive jurisdiction relative to matters and causes testamentary, voluntary and contentious, and in relation to the granting and revoking probates of wills and the administration of the effects of deceased persons, similar to the Probate Court of England, with the right of appointing guardians of infants to take care of their persons and charge of their estates. An appeal lies in certain cases to the Court of Chancery. There is a registrar to each court, besides the Surrogate Clerk, who is an officer of the Court of Chancery.

COURTS OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

The Senior County Judge presides in each county and holds a Court of General Sessions twice a year (except in the County of York, where three Courts are held in the year), for trials by jury in cases of felony and misdemeanour, and for the decision of appeals from the summary convictions of magistrates. Capital felonies and a few other crimes are excepted from their jurisdiction.

IV., Cap. 5 (1822.) “The Treasurer and Benchers of the Law Society” were formally incorporated ; and under these and other statutes the

* Is also Clerk of the Executive Council.

† The first Act relating to the profession of the law in Upper Canada was the ordinance of Quebec (29 Geo. III., Cap. 4) which was repealed by the Act of 1797, establishing the Law Society. This Ordinance, however, continued in force in Lower Canada, until 1849.—Hodgins's Ed. Directory.

Society has continued to be governed by a Board of Benchers in the same manner as the various Law Societies of England. By the Act 34 Vic. Cap. 15 (1870) the Benchers theretofore appointed from time to time by their own body, are made, exclusive of ex officio members, elective by the Bar, the ex officio consisting of the Attorney-General of Canada for the time being, and every person who has held that office, if a member of the Bar of Ontario, and of the Attorney-General for the time being, and all members of the Bar of Ontario, who have at any time held the office of Attorney or Solicitor-General of the former Province of Upper Canada, and any retired Judge of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity of Ontario ; the elective, thirty in number, being chosen by ballot, for a term of five years, by the members of the Bar, in manner prescribed by the Act. Vacancies during the term to be filled by the remaining Benchers. The Judges of the Superior Courts are Visitors of the Society, and on the first Saturday of Easter Term, annually, the Benchers appoint one of their body to be Treasurer, who is also President of the Society. The Benchers sit in convocation every term for the call of Barristers, the admission of Attorneys and Solicitors to practice, and of Students to enter the Society, the fees paid by whom form the revenue of the Society. "Osgoode Hall" appropriately named after the first Chief Justice, is the Ontario "Inn of Court," or head-quarters of the Society, in which is provided accommodation for the Courts of Equity, and for the sittings in term of the Superior Courts ; with a valuable and extensive library.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

THE JUDICIARY.

THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.*

CHIEF JUSTICE :

The Honourable Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie, Kt.

PUISNE JUDGES :

The Honourable Henry Pering Pellew Crease.

The Honourable John Hamilton Gray, D.C.L.

OFFICERS :

Registrar.—Chas. Edward Pooley (28 Feb. 1873 ; Salary, $1,940).

Deputy Registrar.—Henry Slye Mason (4 March, 1873 ; Salary, $340).

Usher.—James Irving (Salary, $600).

* The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, established in British Columbia in 1858, embraces the jurisdiction of the Queen's Bench, both civil and criminal ; of the Courts of Chancery ; of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes ; of Probate ; Administration of the Estates of Intestates ; and of the Exchequer and Revenue cases, except so far as the latter may have been limited or amended by the late Act of the Dominion Parliament creating the Supreme Court of Canada.

The law is the English law—statutory and otherwise as it existed in 1858—so far as it may not be inapplicable, or altered by Dominion or Provincial Legislation. The practice is according to the Common Law Procedure Acts, and the Rules of the above-mentioned Courts, modified to suit the country.

The terms of the Supreme Court are—Hilary, from 15th to 25th February ; Easter, from 15th to 25th April ; Michaelmas, from 15th to 25th November, with power of extension in case of press of business.

The Assizes and Nisi Prius are held throughout the mainland during the intervening months between April and November ; on the Island of Vancouver, at Victoria and Nanaimo, in Spring and Autumn ; and at such other times as the local government may deem proper by proclamation to order.

The Supreme Court is constituted on the English model—governed by similar practices—and the costumes of the judges, barristers, and officers of the court, the same as in England.

COURT OF VICE-ADMIRALTY.*

Homer (2 June, 1875).Victoria.—C. J. Prevost.Registrar-General of Titles, &c.—Hugh Bowlsby Willson Aikman (7 Dec., 1871 ; Salary, $2,425).

* The Court of Vice-Admiralty is a branch of the English Court, held under Imperial commission to the Chief Justice, with power of appointment of a deputy, and is governed by the rules and practice of the Admiralty Court in England. No salary is attached ; emoluments by fees ; sittings contingent on emergency.

† The County Courts are substantially based upon the County Court Acts of England as they existed in 1858, with a civil jurisdiction only to the extent of $500. They sit monthly, and are governed by the English County Courts Procedure and Forms, amended by local statutes to suit the circumstances of the Province.

GOLD COMMISSIONERS' COURTS.

The Gold Commissioners' Courts in the more settled districts are merged into the County Courts, but when not so merged, the Gold Commissioners and Justices of the Peace hold local courts, and have jurisdiction and powers pointed out and regulated by local statutes.

In the far remote districts of Kooltenay and Cassiar—800 and 1,200 miles from Victoria—and elsewhere, where there are no County Court Judges—the Judges of the Supreme Court when on circuit, in addition to the Assizes and Nisi Prius—by authority of special local legislation—hold County Courts and dispose of county court cases.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

RESPECTING THE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF CANADA, AND OF THOSE OF THE VARIOUS PROVINCIAL AND COUNTY COURTS OF THE SEVERAL PROVINCES OF THE DOMINION, ARRANGED IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER.

ALLEN, Hon. JOHN CAMPBELL, Chief Justice of New Brunswick. Son of the late John Allen, Esq., formerly a captain in the New Brunswick Fencibles, a corps raised during the war of 1812, subsequently Inspecting Field Officer of the Militia of New Brunswick, and from 1809 to 1847 one of the representatives of York in the New Brunswick Assembly; and grandson of Hon. Isaac Allen, a loyalist, who practised law at Trenton, in New Jersey, but who, adhering to the Royal cause at the breaking out of the American Revolution, was appointed to the command of a regiment called "The New Jersey Volunteers," and served until the end of the war, when he removed to Nova Scotia, thence to New Brunswick, and in 1784 was appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court of that Province. Born at Kingsclear, York, N.B., 1 Oct., 1817; educated at Fredericton Grammar School; married Margaret, daughter of late Charles Drury, Esq., of St. John, N.B., formerly a captain in 29th Regiment of Foot. Called to the Bar Michaelmas Term, 1840; elected a Bencher of the Barristers' Society, 1851; declined a Q.C., 1860; was for some years Registrar and Clerk to the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and also Reporter to the Supreme Court of New Brunswick; was Solicitor-General of New Brunswick from May, 1856, until May, 1857, when the Government resigned, having been defeated at the general election ; Speaker of the New Brunswick Assembly, from 1862 until the dissolution in 1865 ; and Attorney-General (in Mr. A. J. Smith's Administration) from April until 21 Sept., 1865, when appointed a Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court ; appointed Chief Justice of New Brunswick (succeeding Hon. J. W. Ritchie), 8 Oct., 1875. (Salary $4,999.92.) Sat for York in New Brunswick Assembly from 1856 until raised to the Bench. As a public man was opposed to the Prohibitory Liquor Law and to the Confederation of the British North American Provinces. Since his appointment Chief Justice Allen has tried many important causes, the most notable of which was the case of John A. Munroe, in 1869, for the murder of Sarah Margaret Vail, whom he had seduced. The trial occupied ten days and excited great interest, as the prisoner was in a respectable position in life, and was generally supposed to bear a good character. The murder was not discovered till nearly a year after its commission, as it was supposed the young woman had gone to the States. The skeletons of the woman and her infant (he murdered the child also) were discovered by some children who were picking berries, and the remains were identified chiefly by portions of the clothing which the woman and child were proved to have worn when last seen. The evidence against the prisoner was almost entirely circumstantial, and the case, on that account, was a very interesting one. The evidence was very conclusive, and the prisoner was convicted and executed. He confessed his guilt. The prosecution was conducted by Attorney-General Wetmore, now one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of N.B. In 1875 he tried a number of persons for a riot at Carraquet, caused by resistance to the enforcement of the Common Schools Act. Carraquet is a parish in the county of Gloucester, and the rioters were French people. They were convicted. He also tried a Frenchman named Chasson, who was indicted, with ten others, for the murder of one Gifford, who was acting in aid of the sheriff's officers in arresting the Carraquet rioters (mentioned above). He was convicted, but the judgment was arrested by the Supreme Court on a case reserved. These cases caused a great deal of excitement in the county of Gloucester, where nearly the whole Roman Catholic population were violently opposed to the School Law, and were determined to resist its enforcement. The murder trial lasted upwards of a month. Every juror was challenged by the prisoner, and the trial of the challenges and the arguments of counsel upon the various questions arising out of them occupied upwards of a month. It was the most lengthy criminal trial that has ever taken place in the Province.—Fredericton.

James E. Small, subsequently Solicitor-General for Upper Canada, and was called to the Bar, Michaelmas Term, 1839; practised in partnership with Mr. Small in Toronto, from the date of his admission until 17 Jan., 1843, when without solicitation on his part, he was appointed Judge of the District and Surrogate Court of the District of Simcoe, and he was for many years the youngest Judge in the Province. The District Judges were ex-officio Judges of the Division Courts in their Judicial Districts, and in 1853, an Act was passed empowering the Governor to appoint five Judges to frame Rules regulating Procedure in these Courts, and for settling doubtful points, &c., under the Division Court Law. Judge Gowan was appointed on this Board, in association with the late Judge Harrison (an English Barrister), and Judges O'Reilly, Campbell and Malloch. In Oct., 1857, the Judges of the Superior Courts, having been empowered to associate a District Judge with them in making certain provisions as to fees, &c., under the Common Law Procedure Act, selected Judge Gowan for that purpose. The Act assimilating the Canadian law of Probate and Administration to that of England, and providing for Courts in every Judicial District, required the appointment by the Governor of three Judges, viz. : a Judge of one of the Superior Courts of Common Law, a Judge of the Court of Chancery, and a County Judge, to make rules and orders regulating procedure in these Courts, the duties of officers, and generally for carrying the provisions of the law into full effect, and the late Mr. Justice Burns, Vice-Chancellor Spragge and Judge Gowan were the three Judges appointed for the purpose in Augt., 1858, and subsequently framed and settled the orders which now regulate the Courts. The important and difficult work of Consolidating the Public Statutes of the country, involving a classification and the recasting of the whole body of the Statute Law from 1792, upon the report of a previous Commission, was committed to Sir James Macaulay, and at his suggestion Judge Gowan was requested by the Governor-General in 1858, to co-operate and assist in the important work, which he did, and was publicly thanked for his aid, Sir James Macaulay in his published report speaking very warmly of Judge Gowan's assistance. This Consolidation became Law, and it was provided by Statute that the public Acts of the same Session should be incorporated therewith, and the body of Statutes thus Consolidated to the day proclaimed as law. Judge Gowan was again appointed by the Governor-General to assist in this delicate and important work, and his assistance was again handsomely acknowledged. Speaking of the Consolidation, Sir James Macaulay himself wrote: "I feel every confidence that a good work has been achieved and a desirable basis laid for future legislation, and for the able and useful services rendered by Judge Gowan. The Government, the Legislature, and the public as well as myself, are greatly indebted to him." In April, 1862, Special Commissions were issued to Sir James Macaulay and Judge Gowan to hold certain Assizes, they being selected to fill the duty of Chief Justice Draper, then absent in England on important public business on behalf of Canada. In the same year, heavy disputed claims between the Government of Canada and the contractors, for the erection of the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa were submitted for adjudication to a tribunal of three, the Government Engineer, and an Engineer named by the contractors being two, it being arranged that some one Upper Canada Judge, whom both sides might agree upon, should be the third. Judge Gowan was the one selected, and the tribunal of which he was chairman by an unanimous finding finally settled the difficult and long pending disputes. In 1869, he was appointed to the position of Chairman of the Board of County Judges, a body which possesses large powers for regulating the procedure of the Division Courts, and for settling confictory decisions, their orders having the force of law throughout Ontario. In 1871, the Hon. Adam Wilson, Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench; Hon. J. W. Gwynne, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas; Hon. S. H. Strong, Vice-Chancellor; Judge Gowan, and Mr. C. S. Day, a retired Judge ; Judge Polette, of the Quebec Bench ; and Judge Gowan, were by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Canada, appointed Royal Commissioners to investigate certain charges against the Ministry, in connection with the Canadian Pacific Railway Contract. JAMES, Hon. ALEXANDER, a Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia. Son of the late Thos. James, Esq., Assistant Commissary-

General, Royal Field Train, who, upon retiring upon half pay, in 1817, settled at Bridgetown, N.S., by Ann Vatly, daughter of Mr. John Crosskill, for some time in Government employ as master of a Provincial vessel. Born in Halifax, 3 Sept., 1815; educated at Bridgetown; married, October, 1845, Harriet Anderson, eldest daughter of John D. Hamilton, Esq., of Dartmouth, N.S.; studied law with Sir William Young, the present Chief Justice of Nova Scotia, and was called to the Bar, 1845. Commenced practice in Halifax. Was from 1848 to 1853, in partnership with the present Judge Blanchard, and subsequently with Mr. James G. Foster, who had been trained in his office. Created a Q.C., 1872. From 1845 to 1856, was Reporter of the decisions of the Superior Courts of Nova Scotia (see Reports of Cases argued and determined in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, &c., by Alex. James), and from 1874 to 1875, was associated with Hon. W. A. Henry, Q.C., and Mr. J. W. Johnston, Q.C., as ad hoc Judges, for the trial of controverted election cases in Nova Scotia. Amongst minor offices Judge James has filled, the assistant clerkship to the Legislative Assembly, from 1849 to 1852, and from 1854 to 1856; the chief clerkship from 1856 to 1864, and the Mastership (in Equity) of the Supreme Court, from 1861 to 1877. As election judge he had special charge of the controverted elections for Cumberland and Colchester; in the former case he dismissed the petition for want of diligent prosecution; and in the latter he unseated the respondent for bribery by agents, this being the first case of a member being unseated under the new law, and the only one, as yet, for corrupt practices, in Nova Scotia. Judge James, before his elevation to the Bench, wrote largely for the newspaper press as an amateur, chiefly on subjects connected with Responsible Government, Free Trade, the Reciprocity Treaty, the American Civil War (on the Union side), and against Confederation, but he subsequently defended the course taken by Mr. Howe, and warmly upheld him during his contest in Hants, when he returned for re-election, on his acceptance of office. Appointed to the Bench on the decease of Hon. Jonathan McCully, 8 Jan., 1877. (Salary $3,999.96.) The principal cause in which Judge James has given a decision since his recent elevation to the Bench, was "In re Ritchie," in which the validity of the seal in use as the Great Seal of Nova Scotia came in question, as also the power of the Local Government to alter the precedence of Queen's Counsel. On both points Judge James differed from the other four judges, and both questions are now under appeal to the High Court of Appeal. The whole of the papers, including the decision of the Judges and the opinions of the Imperial Crown officers, are published in a blue book among the sessional papers of the House of Commons for 1877. Judge James just before his elevation to the Bench, took an active part in endeavouring to form a Dominion Law Society, and was deputed by the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society to proceed to the Upper Provinces to enlist the co-operation of the profession there in the cause, a mission in which he was very successful.—“Evergreen,” Dartmouth, N.S.

* “Lieutenant G. S. Jarvis, H.P., of the 8th Regiment, served as a volunteer in the 49th Regiment during my command in Canada at the time of our late war with the United States of America. His conduct on several occasions was such as to attract my attention and approbation, although he was at the time only 15 years of age. This I noticed in General Orders, and in a private letter to Sir George Prevost. The merit and peculiar situation of this young officer, more than three thousand miles from pointed Judge of the District Court of the United Counties of Prescott and Russell, 21 December, 1825; Judge of Leeds and Grenville, 30 June, 1837; and Judge for the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, 6 January, 1842. (Salary, $2,799.96.)—Cornwall.

Came to Canada, 1835, and studied law first in the office of the late Henry Driscoll, Esq., Q.C., afterwards with the present Hon. Justice Day, and was called to the Bar, 1839. We take from a biographical sketch of Judge Johnson, which has appeared elsewhere, the following further particulars of his career:—

“Owing to his mastery of French, Mr. Johnson speedily took a position of prominence in general practice, and almost immediately upon his admission to the Bar, became a partner of the Hon. Mr. Day, then Solicitor-General.

“A remarkably good speaker, he was retained in all jury trials of importance for years. In 1854, being in failing health, and his home hav-his father, an old and faithful officer of the Crown, whose services have been useful both in the former and late American war, induces me to recommend him to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and I hope an opportunity may be afforded him of being promoted in a service to which he has given such early and convincing proofs of attachment.

ing been broken up by the death of his wife, he went to the Red River Settlement as Recorder of Rupert's Land, then under the sovereignty of the Hon. Hudson's Bay Company. He only remained there four years—for the last three of which he was Governor of the Settlement and of the District of Assiniboia, and in both positions was very popular and successful.

“On returning to Montreal he resumed practice, immediately, in the first rank of his profession. The following year he was made Crown prosecutor—then a position of great responsibility—the District of Montreal comprising, at that time, for criminal purposes, all the present districts, having each a Judge of its own. In this new office he showed conspicuous ability.

“The great case of Beaugard for murder, lasted eleven days, and Mr. Johnson obtained a conviction against the prisoner, though opposed by four eminent counsel, led by the Hon. L. T. Drummond, Q.C. His closing address, both in English and French, elicited great admiration.

“On the death of Hon. J. S. McCord, Mr. Johnson was appointed, on 1st June, 1865, a Judge of Superior Court resident in Bedford.

“In 1870, shortly after the insurrection, he was selected as special Commissioner to proceed to Manitoba, and investigate and report upon the state of the laws—an office which it is probably not too much to say no other man could have executed. Leave was given him of one year's absence for that purpose, but at the expiration of the first year he was pressed to return for one year more to execute another commission of the greatest importance and difficulty. Both these commissions were executed by Judge Johnson with acknowledged ability and power; and besides these, he executed the office of Judge in Manitoba—in which capacity he tried the Fenians in the winter of 1871-2.

“In April, 1872, he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, but on a technical ground, this appointment was objected to, and superseded.

“In 1849, together with many other prominent Englishmen—Mr. Johnson signed what has been called the ‘Annexation Manifesto,’ which was in reality a demonstration intended to show the contempt, in their opinion, into which the Provincial Government had sunk; for this he was deprived of the silk gown which he had received in 1847, but which he was requested to take back in 1853. In Oct., 1872, Judge Johnson was transferred to Montreal.” (Salary, $4,999.92.)—166 Mansfield St., Montreal; St. James' Club.

John Stuart, D.D., a U. E. loyalist, and the first minister of the Anglican Church in Upper Canada, who settled at Kingston, 1784. Born at York (now Toronto), 12 Oct., 1807. Educated partly at Kingston and partly at Quebec. Married Miss Margaret Black Stacy, niece of the late Hon. Henry Black, C.B., the late Judge of the Admiralty at Quebec. Pursued his legal studies with Mr., afterwards Sir James, Stuart, Attorney-General, and was called to the Bar, 1830. Created a Q.C., 1854. [For the statement which follows respecting the subsequent career of Mr. Stuart, we are indebted to a friend] :—“ In 1834, at the time in good practice, he published a volume of useful and interesting cases which had been determined in the Courts of Lower Canada. In the same year he entered into partnership with Mr. James Stuart, with whom he had studied, subsequently Sir James, which lasted until the elevation of the latter to the Chief Justiceship of Lower Canada in 1838. Entertaining a strong feeling for the advancement of the City of Quebec he consented to a nomination as a municipal councillor for his ward in 1844. In 1846, and for four years consecutively, he was chosen Mayor by a unanimous vote, and while holding that office he was the means of introducing into the City of Quebec, the supply of pure water from Lake St. Charles, for which the City is distinguished, and gave his aid to other necessary and useful improvements. Upon his retirement from the Mayoralty he was presented by the citizens generally, with a very valuable silver testimonial, designed in London.

“ In 1852, two years after his retirement from the Mayoralty, he was put in nomination as a candidate to represent the City of Quebec, then the seat of Government, in the Provincial Parliament. He was elected by a triumphant majority over the candidates supporting the administration led by Sir Francis Hincks, and sat for Quebec during that Parliament. Opposed to the financial and railway policy of the party in power, he concurred in a vote of want of confidence passed in the House of Assembly which occasioned a dissolution. At the new election for the City of Quebec Mr. Stuart was defeated by the candidates of the administration, including a Cabinet Minister, but on the re-assembling of Parliament the previous want of confidence vote was sustained by a failure of the Government to effect the election of Sir George Cartier as Speaker. A change of Government then took place. Mr. Stuart was named a Queen's Counsel and appointed a Judge to discharge duties as such, pending the session of Judges of the several Courts under the 'Seigniorial Act of 1854.' In 1857 he was again solicited to stand for the representation of the City of Quebec, and after a sharp contest he was elected in opposition to the present Judge Plamondon, and sat for the City during that Parliament, in which he voted as an independent member. While in the Legislature he thoroughly advocated an intercolonial railway from Halifax, to the exclusion of one in connection with a foreign State, so as to connect at Quebec with and along the north shore of the St. Lawrence by rail to the west. With this object he acted with a deputation from the Lower Provinces and influential citizens at Quebec, who were successful in obtaining a change in the policy of the Government. Among other measures of public utility he introduced and carried through an Act but now taking effect; the North Shore Railway Act of 1853, whereby a railway connection with the Intercolonial to Halifax to extend from Quebec to the far west will be secured. Since 1858 Mr. Stuart has been frequently pressed to allow his nomination to represent the City, but has declined, preferring the pursuit of his profession, to which he is strongly attached as well from education as choice, and in which he has been eminently successful, to a political life where the population is not homogeneous, and where national and religious questions render a political course extremely hazardous to one of a minority. In 1858 Mr. Stuart published in London his first volume of Admiralty Reports involving questions of maritime law of frequent occurrence in the trade and navigation of the Gulf and River St. Lawrence. These Reports are well known in England, and are frequently cited as authority in leading publications there, and are also held in high esteem in the United States.

“ Under the late Administration, of which Sir John A. Macdonald, K.C.B., was the leader, Mr. Stuart received the appointment of Judge of the Admiralty, vacant by the decease of Mr. Black. Since then he has relaxed his practising in the other Courts and gives his attention almost exclusively to admiralty matters. In 1875 he published in London a second volume of Quebec Admiralty Reports, to which is added an appendix showing the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty—and of the Vice-Admiralty Courts, a work of much use and highly appreciated by the legal profession. The business of the Vice-Admiralty Court at Quebec has much increased. It takes cognizance, when the res on the ship comes within the Province of Quebec, of maritime contracts and torts, whether arising on Canadian waters from Lake Superior to the Atlantic Ocean or upon the high seas ; its jurisdiction as to amount is unlimited, and the only appeal from its decision is to Her Majesty in Her Privy Council, a tribunal hitherto but very rarely resorted to as its decisions have been rendered with much care and, when considered necessary, by the Judge, with the aid of nautical experience from gentlemen well skilled in the science of navigation. The Judge of the Admiralty ranks with the Judges of the Queen's Bench and Superior Courts."—(Salary $2,000.)—St. Ursule Street, Quebec.

It is indeed a very great satisfaction to Mr. Greaves to think that he may have been of some use towards the completion of the Canada Criminal Law. WOOD, Hon. EDMUND BURKE, Chief Justice of Manitoba. Fourth son of the late Mr. Samuel Wood, who, in 1818, removed from Fort Erie to eastern part of Township of Dumfries, and thence, in 1839, to Township of Beverley, by Charlotte, his wife. Born at or near Fort Erie, Ont., 13 Feb., 1820; educated at the common schools and at Oberlin College, Ohio, where he graduated B.A., 1848; married, April, 1855, Jane Augusta, second daughter of Dr. Peter Marter, of Brantford, and formerly of St. Andrews, N.B. Freeman and Jones, Hamilton, and was called to the Bar, Trinity Term, 1848; called to the Bar of Manitoba, 1874; created a Q.C., 1872; elected a Bencher of the Law Society, 1873. Was in partnership for five years with Mr. P. B. Long, of Brantford, and always enjoyed an extensive and lucrative practice. During the early part of 1873, Mr. Blake, who had been returned for two places, West Durham and South Bruce, elected to sit for the latter, and so rendered West Durham vacant. The representation of this constituency was pressed upon Mr. Wood, and after some hesitation, he retired from the Local Assembly, and was returned for West Durham to the Commons by acclamation, where he continued to sit until 11 March, 1874, when he was appointed Chief Justice of Manitoba. (Salary $4,999.92). Appointed Administrator of the Government of Manitoba and the North-West Territories during the absence, &c., of the Lieutenant-Governor, 26 August, 1874. Was one of the chief projectors and promoters of the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway, extending from the waters of Lake Huron to Fort Erie on the Niagara River, and until its amalgamation with the Grand Trunk Railway, was its solicitor and legal adviser. While at the Bar was engaged in many important cases, the most important being Whitehead vs. Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway Co., involving a large amount of money and many grave questions of law—it was instituted in Chancery, and carried to the Court of Error and Appeal ; and Widder vs. Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway Co., in which the plaintiff ultimately, on payment of his costs, abandoned his action. When in Parliament, was the author of the scheme for the settlement of the Municipal Loan Fund of Upper Canada, and made all the calculations upon which that scheme was finally carried into effect, the last session he was in the Ontario Assembly. The financial speeches of the Chief Justice, as Treasurer of Ontario (which have been printed in pamphlet form), will give some idea of the perfect knowledge he had of the finances of the Province of Ontario, and with what ability he managed the Department over which he presided for four years. It may with truth be said that he laid the foundation of Ontario's financial status. But his great achievement was in bringing to a triumphant conclusion the financial arbitration between Ontario and Quebec. For years, in the House of Commons, he had struggled to effect an adjustment of the financial rights of Ontario. The accurate knowledge of the financial history of Canada, already referred to, and the ability in dealing with the whole question, displayed by Mr. Wood before the arbitrators, were such as to challenge the highest encomiums, and led to an award (which was drafted by him) which fully came up to the expectations of the most sanguine in his own Province. Since his elevation to the Bench, has delivered many judgments of public importance, but as there is no reporter in Manitoba as yet, his judgments have not been regularly reported. In two cases the Local Government thought the judgments of sufficient general interest to order them to be published for distribution among Justices of the Peace and others. These cases are Regina vs. Dease, and Regina vs. Schultz; in the latter case the Chief Justice ordered a mandamus to issue commanding Mr. Justice Betournay, acting as a police or stipendiary magistrate, to hear on a preliminary examination before him on a charge of perjury, witnesses produced for the defendant. It was contended he was by law entitled to hear only such witnesses as were produced and offered by the prosecutor. He (the Chief Justice) held he was at liberty and of right ought to hear all the witnesses by whomsoever produced who knew anything material as to the facts and circumstances of the charge. This is no doubt an important decision on what before was a moot question. The case of Dease is also important, especially as affecting the Indians, and the punishment of parties giving them any intoxicants. But the most interesting and important case that has come before Chief Justice Wood, was the celebrated case of the Queen vs. Lepine re Scott murder. This was the first argument he heard on his taking his seat on the Bench. The prisoner had pleaded to the indictment, a plea denying the jurisdiction of the Court in Manitoba, or of the Courts of Canada, over the offence charged in the indictment; to this plea the Crown had demurred. The case had been argued before the two Puisne Judges, and had been standing over from term to term without their rendering a decision. Chief Justice Wood at once heard the argument, and without leaving the Bench, on the conclusion of the argument, pronounced judgment for the Crown on the demurrer. He held that both the Court in Manitoba and the Courts in the old Province of Canada, and since Confederation in Ontario and Quebec, had concurrent jurisdiction of offences of this kind, and over this offence. This had been denied by high legal authority; the late Hon. J. Hillyard Cameron, Q.C., and the late D'Arcy Boulton, Q.C., having published a formal written opinion denying this; and Hon. J. H. (now Justice) Gray having published in the Revue Legale (Sorel), an elaborate article also taking the same ground. The same view was held and announced in the House of Commons by the then leader of the Government, and shared in by most of the legal gentlemen then holding seats, but had always been vigorously denied by Mr. Wood. On reference to the law officers of the Crown in England on a revision of the case, with a view to the commutation of Lepine's sentence, the judgment of the Chief Justice on the plea to the jurisdiction was affirmed and upheld. His remarks in pronouncing the sentence of the law on Lepine were much commended. The trial, which involved most complicated questions of fact and constitutional law, lasted two weeks, and excited very general interest throughout the Dominion.—Winnipeg.
